The Walthall Chamber of Commerce presented the first award named for the late Ilene Jaubert in 1963, following the death of the Tylertown businesswoman, club leader and civic worker.

The former Ilene Guy, Mrs. Jaubert (pronounced Jo-Bear) was a county native who began working in her father’s store at Knoxo in 1922 and later owned her own clothing store, Ilene Guy’s in Tylertown. She became successful in the 1940’s when there were few women in business for themselves.

Mrs. Jaubert was the first chairman of the chamber’s Hometown Development Committee and the only woman member of the state executive board which ran the statewide Hometown Development Program. She died in January, 1963.
